Dear Mr. Suzuki:
Dear Mr. Suzuki:

Palimpsest?

I am sending to you today the books which you have requested with the exception of Coleman, Faith under fire; Fosdick, Living under tension; Van Kirk, Religion and the world of tomorrow; all of which are out, and will have to be sent later. These books are signed out until November 12th. If it is going to be necessary to renew books for an additional two weeks, will you let me know? Our chief difficulty at the present time is to give so many the books that are wanted with so few books. Therefore please urge everyone to finish his book on time, because there are so many requests for each volume to be filled. Because of this reason only one volume to a person will be sent at a time, hereafter, although I will be sent it well in time for each to make several choices, in order to be able to receive at least one volume he wishes. Those having books in the larger one should arrange among themselves to reimburse you for the postage. I am enclosing stamps to cover the return of the smaller package. I hope to be able to supply all camps with small libraries, which may remain for perhaps six months at a time, and then be rotated to other camps. Have you any suggestions as to what periodical literature you would like? Have you any suggestions as to what periodical literature you would like?

I am enclosing also another list of books which are available.
Thanking you for your very kind cooperation I am

Yours very sincerely,

(Mr.) Stillson Judah, Librarian.

Dear Mr. Suzuki:

I have made the renewals ^{irred} requested, and have sent the books you requested for Revs. Harata and Yamaka: Bowie. The Master; and Brown. Life of prayer in a world of silence.

Yes, I see no reason why each pastor couldn't attend to returning his own books, but I hope you will be able to help me in seeing that they do not forget to return them at the proper time.

We are now planning to have regular collections of religious books in each camp of from 50 to 100 books. These will remain for a period of from three to six months, and then will be sent to other camps. In this way you will have a small library at hand for all to read from, and one which will have entirely new books every few months. These books will be in part books from six or seven seminaries which have agreed to lend ~~books~~ ^{them} for the duration, and in part from donors who have made gifts for just this purpose.

Iliff Theological Seminary has agreed to send you a small library of suitable books, and I have given your name and address, to whom they will send the books. We will still try to maintain our present service, however.

If there are other questions please let me know.

Yours very sincerely,

(Mr.) Stillson Judah, Librarian.

Dear Mr. Suzuki:

I am sending in your care two books which were requested earlier: Coleman, FAITH UNDER FIRE for Rev. Agatsuma; Horton, CAN CHRISTIANITY SAVE CIVILIZATION? for Rev. Yamaka. These of course are on a regular two week basis with a two week renewal privilege.

About two months ago Iliff Theological Seminary agreed to send you a collection of books, and since then I have neither heard from Iliff nor from you in this regard. Will you please write me when you get a chance, and let me know whether you have received this collection, and how long ago?

In going through my file for book requests from your camp it seems as though I have about filled all up to this point. I should be very glad to receive new lists of books which your ministers would like to read. Then I could send one volume at a time to each until all requests are met.

Our library is very desirous of keeping all the Japanese ministers in the best of religious literature, so be sure that all in your camp look over our lists carefully.

Yours very sincerely,

Stillson Judah, Librarian.

Dear Mr. Suzuki:

I am sending at your request Luccock's "Acts of the Apostles". Ordinarily I only lend books on a two week basis, but I shall take a chance this time and let you have it for a month, subject of course to call it needed here. Be sure to have it back by that time.

I am sorry to hear that the books have not come from Iliff yet, but they probably have a good reason for the delay, and I am sure they should arrive any day now. Please let me know just as soon as they arrive.

Yours very sincerely,

Stillson Judah, Librarian.

Dear Mr. Suzuki:

We have been fortunate in securing funds to purchase new books for the WRA camp libraries. These new books will be in part, current books, and in part, books selected from a large bibliography of books which represent what the professors of three theological seminaries consider the basic books in each field of the Christian religion. Thus other books both current and basic are being ordered for all the other camps, and each camp has its portion of books from this bibliography.

I have already placed the orders for the new books, and they will be sent directly from the publishers to you. They are:

Booth. New Testament Studies, 1942.
Yates. Preaching from the Prophets, 1942.
Niebuhr. Nature and Destiny of Man. v. 2, 1943.
Maus, C. Christ and the Fine Arts, 1938.

When these books arrive please write plainly on the inside of the front ~~front~~ cover "WRA Camp Library." These books are to be a part of your semi-permanent, so print carefully the authors and titles of these on your check-list sheet, when you receive it and your main collection from Iliff.

Hoping that these books will give you and the other Japanese Christian ministers and church workers in your camp many hours of interesting and profitable reading I remain

Yours very sincerely,

Stillson Judah, Librarian.

Dear Mr. Suzuki:

Under the plan for rotation of book collections among the Relocation Camps, you should receive shortly the collection which has been housed at the Heart Mountain Relocation Project, Cody, Wyoming. With it will be sent a list of the contents. Please check the books with this list and make sure you have received them all.

You in turn will forward the collection you have to

Rev. Sohei Kowta, 12-3-B, Unit 1, Poston, Arizona.

Before sending the books check them against your list to be sure that the collection is complete, then forward the check list with the books.

Since we have no funds for postage, we are having to ask the ministers and church workers to take care of this expense. It will vary, probably, from $1.50 to $2.00.

The following books are being ordered to be sent directly to the camp library in your care:

- Blackwood, Preaching the Bible
- x Booth, The Quest for Preaching Power
- x Brunner, The Divine-Human Encounter
- Filson, One Lord, One Faith
- y Gilkey, God Will Help You
- x Horton, Our ~~X~~eternal Contemporary
- x Luccock, Acts of the Apostles
- x McCown, Search for the Real Jesus
- x Tittle, The Lord's Prayer
- x Van Dusen, What is the Church Doing?
- x Brightman, The Spiritual Life
- x Buttrick, Prayer

When they arrive mark each book "W.R.A. Camp Library" inside the front cover, and add the titles to your check list.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Suzuki:

I have not heard whether the transfer of the W.R.A. books from Heart Mountain to Lamar, and from Lamar to Poston, Unit 1, has been successfully completed. I hope no difficulties arose.

We are now in a position to purchase additional books for the various camps. Will you and the other Christian workers in your camp make up a list of the authors and titles of books you would like to have and send it to me? I will place the orders immediately but it may be some time before you receive them as the publishers are slow in filling orders.

Have you received the twelve books ordered sent direct to your camp some time ago?

I would appreciate you writing me about the collections. If you have suggestions to make about the handling of them I shall be glad to consider them.

Thanking you for your cooperation, I am

Dear Mr. Suzuki:

I was very sorry to hear that there had been a misunderstanding about the loan collection of religious books. I thought my instructions were perfectly clear.

You listed only ten books on your card. According to my records sixteen were ordered for your camp. I hope this does not mean that they have been lost. The other titles are: Booth, New Testament Studies, Yates, Preaching from the Prophets, Niebuhr, Nature and Destiny of Man (vol.2), Maus, Christ and the Fine Arts, Blackwood, Preaching the Bible, and Filson, One Lord, One Faith.

Please box these sixteen volumes and send them, with a list of titles, to Rev. Sohei Kowta, 12-3-B, Unit 1, Poston, Arizona.

I shall write to Iliff and ask them to forward the books returned to them by you, so that Poston will have a satisfactory collection.

Will you please fill out and return the enclosed card so that I can keep my records clear as to the location of all the books.

As you will be receiving the collection from Heart Mountain in the near future (if it has not already arrived), I think it would be well for me to restate the arrangement so that there will be no trouble when the times comes for the next rotation.

A number of theological schools, including our own, lent books which were to be used in relocation centers as long as they were needed, and were then to be returned to their owners. In some cases the books lent by a school formed a single collection, as in the case of the books sent you from Iliff. In other cases books from several libraries were assembled to make a single unit. Twelve such collections were made and placed, with check lists, in twelve centers with the understanding that the books were lent, not given.

After these collections had been placed in the centers money was received from various sources for the purchase of new books. A few books were ordered for each camp to be sent direct from the publishers. The librarian at the camp was instructed that as each book was received he was to print "W.R.A. Camp Library" on the inside of the cover, and add the author and title to the check list received with the original collection.

Plans were made to rotate the collections so that the books would be made available to as many readers as possible. The arrangement was that, at the end of a given period, a letter would be sent to each camp giving the name and address of the camp to which the books (the original collection and the new books added later), with the check list, were to be forwarded.

If you have any questions about the books do not hesitate to write to me and I will do everything possible to help you.

Yours sincerely,

Dear madam:

I think it might be well to review the situation regarding the religious loan libraries, two of which your camp has had the opportunity of using.

According to my records the first collection you received was returned to the Iliff School of Theology at the expiration of the first loan period. You then received a collection of books from the camp at Heart Mountain, Wyoming. These are the books which you are supposed to be reading now. You should have received a list of the books in that collection from Heart Mountain at the time the books were mailed to you.

Do not mail your present loan collection anywhere without instructions from my office. The plan is that I shall have charge of directing the rotation of the collections, and the time has not come for the next change.

Do the best you can to make your list complete, by adding to it any titles that you have that are not on the list. Some new books were ordered last winter to supplement the various collections, and they arrived one by one.

I am fairly certain, however, that the two titles about which Rev. Suzuki was asking, namely Nature and destiny of man and Christ and the fine arts do not belong in the collection you have now but to the collection which you shipped to Iliff. The simplest solution is, I think, for you to send those two titles here and let me send them where they belong.

Very sincerely yours,

Dorothy Felter, Librarian

Dear Rev. Suzuki:

As Mr. Judah's successor for the duration, I am taking over the task of administering the religious libraries at the various relocation camps. Although I have been poring over the correspondence, there are many gaps in my knowledge of the status of affairs. If I ask questions that you have already answered, I hope that you will be patient with me.

As I understand it, you have two book collections at Amache now: your original collection and the one you received from Heart Mountain. It would seem then that one the the camps must be without a collection, since you have two. I think it will be necessary for you to give up one ~~of these~~ collections. I suggest that you make plans to give up the one you received first, but do not send it on until you hear from me. Incidentally, I do not seem to have any record of the letter (of the alphabet) which identifies the loan collection which was originally sent to you. It is a small matter, but I find it seems easier to identify a collection by that letter than by its present, past or future whereabouts.

We have a duplicate copy of the collection which you received from Heart Mountain, but I am writing to them to ask them to forward their copy of the list, for which they have no further use.

There is some mix-up about Niebuhr's Nature and destiny of man. I shall try to straighten it out soon. It was ordered for you. Did you receive it and add it to your original collection and the list that pertains to it? Christ and the fine arts was also ordered for you.

I should appreciate an early reply from you, and shall be grateful for your cooperation .

Very sincerely yours,

Dorothy Felter, Librarian

Dear Mr. Judah:

Sorry to delay answering your letter of Dec. 14th. ...
Happy New Year Greetings to you, a plenty.As for the books from Ht. Mountain to Lamar, and from Lamar to Poston, Unit 1, the transfer has not been done. We sent ours to the owners, Iliff School of Theology. We haven't received any from Heart Mountain. I don't think there is a clear understanding as to the transfers. ... We lost six books and we offered to pay for them but Iliff wouldn't take the money.
Such books as "Prayer", God Can Help You, What is the Church Doing?, The Spiritual Life, The Lord's Prayer, The Acts of the Apostles, The Search for the Real Jesus, The Quest for Preaching Power, Our Eternal Contemporary, Brunner's "The Divine Human Encounter", etc. are here. There was no word about it, so what am I to do with it? It isn't good policy to keep it loose, for we loose them, as we lost Iliff's books.

Sincerely Lester Suzuki.

Dear Mr. Judah:

Thank you for your letter of Feb. 8th. It was quite detailed.

Going into the matter of new books and old books, there are several things that must be cleared. As for new books, I didn't know where they were coming from, so I didn't loan them out, except one. With further check up, I will loan them for reading. Right now, I can account for 12 books (new). And perhaps, Reinhold Niebuhr's book "Nature and Destiny of Man" (vol 2.), which was here for some few months, and didn't come with the last 12 books, may be one of the 16 you mention. There is also at the church office, Christ and Fine Arts, and perhaps that may be one of the books of your lot of new books. It didn't seem like a new book, and it has been here a long time and not with the recent arrivals. The new books arrived after Christmas.

We haven't had a chance to read those books at all, so I wish you would give us a little time to borrow the books for some few weeks before we send them to Poston. With the two books at the church office, I can account for only 14 books.

The Heart Mountain collection came but no list came. The brethren thought it would be safe (to send them back to you, so it was sent back to you.) Heart Mountain still has the list if they got it originally. We have quite a collection of books here, and the men will have twenty years before they make full use of them, so they are reluctant to receive any more library collections. All of our men are Isseis, except myself and perhaps Rev. C. Kuzuhara may be considered Nisei, although he was born in Japan, and had a bit of education there, and his thinking is Issei.

Our church secretary changes once in a while, so we must check things over all over.

If you have a list of library collections sent to us, I would appreciate receiving such a list for double checking. We are supposed to have all but I must look into the matter and try to find all lists. The church janitor and even pastors, can't read English and sometimes throw away valuable papers.

We thank you for your kind and considerate services, and we hope things will work out better.

Very gratefully yours,

Lester E. Suzuki

Dear Miss Felter:

Congratulations on being appointed successor to Mr. Judah.

Now that you are on the job, I think I ought to give you the proper person to write the requests or letters to. That person is the secretary of the church, 7H Church, Amache, Colo. She may change in a short time.

I hope few complications arise from the exchange of library books. We have a set from Heart Mountain, which is already bound and ready to be mailed back, and which I said was mailed to Mr. Judah. Mr. Judah said that that collection should go to Poston, but I haven't had time to check over the belated list from Heart Mt. and I don't know if all the books are there or not. I would and the ministerial body would rather send it back to you. How about that?

2d lot

As to the new books ordered, I must get the full list complete first, before I let anybody see any book, lest we lose some. Here too, the ministerial body is not very anxious to keep it here, due to many mix ups.

I don't know where the Nature and Destiny of Man belong, nor the Christ and the Fine Arts. They were here some time ago, but the other new books came very late. Whether it is of the same collection or ordered the same time, I was not told. I must clarify this new collection before we use them. We had so much bad luck with the Iliff collection, that we dare not use any more books without knowing what is what.

Thanking you for your kind services, we remain,

Yours very truly,

Lester E. Suzuki

Quarantine expenses of whatever nature or kind upon or in respect to property shall be borne by the owners of the property or be a lien thereon. The carrier shall not be liable for loss or damage occasioned by fumigation or disinfection or other acts required or done by quarantine regulations or authorities even though the same may have been done by carrier's officers, agents, or employees, nor for detention, loss, or damage of any kind occasioned by quarantine or the enforcement thereof. No carrier shall be liable, except in case of negligence, for any mistake or inaccuracy in any information furnished by the carrier, its agents, or officers, as to quarantine laws or regulations. The shipper shall hold the carrier harmless from any expense they may incur, or damages they may be required to pay, by reason of the introduction of the property covered by this contract into any place against the quarantine laws or regulations in effect at such place.

Sec. 2. (a) No carrier is bound to transport said property by any particular train or vessel, or in time for any particular market or otherwise than with reasonable dispatch. Every carrier shall have the right in case of physical necessity to forward said property by any carrier or route between the point of shipment and the point of destination. In all cases not prohibited by law, where a lower value than actual value has been represented in writing by the shipper or has been agreed upon in writing as the released value of the property as determined by the classification or tariffs upon which the rate is based, such lower value plus freight charges if paid shall be the maximum amount to be recovered, whether or not such loss or damage occurs from negligence.

(b) As a condition precedent to recovery, claims must be filed in writing with the receiving or delivering carrier, or carrier issuing this bill of lading, or carrier on whose line the loss, damage, injury or delay occurred, within nine months after delivery of the property (or in case of export trade, within nine months after delivery at port of export) or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed; and suits shall be instituted against any carrier only within two years and one day from the day when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof specified in the notice. Where claims are not filed or suits are not instituted thereon in accordance with the foregoing provisions, no carrier hereunder shall be liable, and such claims will not be paid.

(c) Any carrier or party liable on account of loss of or damage to any of said property shall have the full benefit of any insurance that may have been effected upon or on account of said property, so far as this shall not avoid the policies or contracts of insurance. Provided, That the carrier reimburse the claimant for the premium paid thereon.

Sec. 3. Except where such service is required as the result of carrier's negligence, all property shall be subject to necessary coopersage and baling at owner's cost. Each carrier over whose route cotton or cotton linters is to be transported hereunder shall have the privilege, at its own cost and risk, of compressing the same for greater convenience in handling or forwarding, and shall not be held responsible for deviation or unavoidable delays in procuring such compression. Grain in bulk consigned to a point where there is a railroad, public or licensed elevator, may (unless otherwise expressly noted herein, and then if it is not promptly unloaded) be there delivered and placed with other grain of the same kind and grade without respect to ownership (and prompt notice thereof shall be given to the consignor), and if so delivered shall be subject to a lien for elevator charges in addition to all other charges hereunder.

Sec. 4. (a) Property not removed by the party entitled to receive it within the free time allowed by tariffs, lawfully on file (such free time to be computed as therein provided), after notice of the arrival of the property at destination or at the port of export (if intended for export) has been duly sent or given, and after placement of the property for delivery at destination has been made, may be kept in vessel, car, depot, warehouse or place of delivery of the carrier, subject to the tariff charge for storage and to carrier's responsibility as warehouseman, only, or at the option of the carrier, may be removed to and stored in a public or licensed warehouse at the place of delivery or other available place, at the cost of the owner, and there held without liability on the part of the carrier, and subject to a lien for all freight and other lawful charges, including a reasonable charge for storage.

(b) Where nonperishable property which has been transported to destination hereunder is refused by consignee or the party entitled to receive it, or said consignee or party entitled to receive it fails to receive it within 15 days after notice of arrival shall have been duly sent or given, the carrier may sell the same at public auction to the highest bidder, at such place as may be designated by the carrier. Provided: That the carrier shall have first mailed, sent, or given to the consignor notice that the property has been refused or remains unclaimed, as the case may be, and that it will be subject to sale under the terms of the bill of lading if disposition be not arranged for, and shall have published notice containing a description of the property, the name of the party to whom consigned, or, if shipped order notify, the name of the party to be notified, and the time and place of sale, once a week for two successive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation at the place of sale or nearest place where such newspaper is published: Provided, That 30 days shall have elapsed before publication of notice of sale after said notice that the property was refused or remains unclaimed was mailed, sent, or given.

(c) Where perishable property which has been transported hereunder to destination is refused by consignee or party entitled to receive it, or said consignee or party entitled to receive it shall fail to receive it promptly, the carrier may, in its discretion, to prevent deterioration or further deterioration, sell the same to the best advantage at private or public sale. Provided, That if time serves for notification to the consignor or owner of the refusal of the property or the failure to receive it and request for disposition of the property, such notification shall be given, in such manner as the exercise of due diligence requires, before the property is sold.

(d) Where the procedure provided for in the two paragraphs last preceding is not possible, it is agreed that nothing contained in said paragraphs shall be construed to abridge the right of the carrier at its option to sell the property under such circumstances and in such manner as may be authorized by law.

(e) The proceeds of any sale made under this section shall be applied by the carrier to the payment of freight, demurrage, storage, and any other lawful charges and the expense of notice, advertisement, sale, and other necessary expense and of caring for and maintaining the property, if proper care of the same requires special expense, and should there be a balance it shall be paid to the owner of the property sold hereunder.

(f) Property destined to or taken from a station, wharf, or landing at which there is no regularly appointed freight agent shall be entirely at risk of owner after unloaded from cars or vessels or until loaded into cars or vessels, and except in case of carrier's negligence, when received from or delivered to such stations, wharves, or landings shall be at owner's risk until the cars are attached to and after they are detached from locomotive or train or until loaded into and after unloaded from vessels.

Sec. 5. No carrier hereunder will carry or be liable in any way for any documents, specie, or for any articles of extraordinary value not specifically rated in the published classifications or tariffs unless a special agreement to do so and a stipulated value of the articles are indorsed hereon.

Sec. 6. Every party, whether principal or agent, shipping explosives or dangerous goods without previous full written disclosure to the carrier of their nature, shall be liable for and indemnify the carrier against all loss or damage caused by such goods, and such goods may be warehoused at owner's risk and expense or destroyed without compensation.

Sec. 7. The owner or consignee shall pay the freight and average, if any, and all other lawful charges accruing on said property; but, except in those instances where it may lawfully be authorized to do so, no carrier by railroad shall deliver or relinquish possession at destination of the property covered by this bill of lading until all tariff rates and charges thereon have been paid. The consignor shall be liable for the freight and all other lawful charges, except that if the consignor stipulates, by signature, in the space provided for that purpose on the face of this bill of lading that the carrier shall not make delivery without requiring payment of such charges and the carrier, contrary to such stipulation, shall make delivery without requiring such payment, the consignor (except as hereinafter provided) shall not be liable for such charges. Provided, that, where the carrier has been instructed by the shipper or consignor to deliver said property to a consignee other than the shipper or consignor, such consignee shall not be legally liable for transportation charges in respect of the transportation of said property (beyond those billed against him at the time of delivery for which he is otherwise liable) which may be found to be due after the property has been delivered to him, if the consignee (a) is an agent only and has no beneficial title in said property; and (b) prior to delivery of said property has notified the delivering carrier in writing of the fact of such agency and absence of beneficial title, and, in the case of a shipment reconsignee or diverted to a point other than that specified in the original bill of lading, has also notified the delivering carrier in writing of the name and address of the beneficial owner of said property; and, in such cases the shipper or consignor, or, in the case of a shipment so reconsignee or diverted, the beneficial owner, shall be liable for such additional charges. If the consignee has given to the carrier erroneous information as to who the beneficial owner is, such consignee shall himself be liable for such additional charges. On shipments reconsignee or diverted by an agent who has furnished the carrier in the reconsignment or diversion order with a notice of agency and the proper name and address of the beneficial owner, and where such shipments are refused or abandoned at ultimate destination, the said beneficial owner shall be liable for all legally applicable charges in connection therewith. If the reconsignment or diverter has given to the carrier erroneous information as to who the beneficial owner is, such reconsignment or diverter shall himself be liable for all such charges.

If a shipper or consignor of a shipment of property (other than a prepaid shipment) is also the consignee named in the bill of lading and, prior to the time of delivery, notifies, in writing, a delivering carrier by railroad (a) to deliver such property at destination to another party, (b) that such party is the beneficial owner of such property, and (c) that delivery is to be made to such party only upon payment of transportation charges in respect of the transportation of such property, and delivery is made by the carrier to such party without such payment, such shipper or consignor shall not be liable (as shipper, consignor, consignee, or otherwise) for such transportation charges but the party to whom delivery is so made shall in any event be liable for transportation charges billed against the property at the time of such delivery, and also for any additional charges which may be found to be due after delivery of the property, except that if such party prior to such delivery has notified in writing the delivering carrier that he is not the beneficial owner of the property, and has given in writing to such delivering carrier the name and address of such beneficial owner, such party shall not be liable for any additional charges which may be found to be due after delivery of the property; but if the party to whom delivery is made has given to the carrier erroneous information as to the beneficial owner, such party shall nevertheless be liable for such additional charges. If the shipper or consignor has given to the delivering carrier erroneous information as to who the beneficial owner is, such shipper or consignor shall himself be liable for such transportation charges, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph and irrespective of any provisions to the contrary in the bill of lading or in the contract of transportation under which the shipment was made. The term "delivering carrier" means the line-haul carrier making ultimate delivery.

Nothing herein shall limit the right of the carrier to require at time of shipment the prepayment or guarantee of the charges. If upon inspection it is ascertained that the articles shipped are not those described in this bill of lading, the freight charges must be paid upon the articles actually shipped.

Where delivery is made by a common carrier by water the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply, except as may be inconsistent with Part III of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Sec. 8. If this bill of lading is issued on the order of the shipper, or his agent, in exchange or in substitution for another bill of lading, the shipper's signature to the prior bill of lading as to the statement of value or otherwise, or election of common law or bill of lading liability, in or in connection with such prior bill of lading, shall be considered a part of this bill of lading as fully as if the same were written or made in or in connection with this bill of lading.

Sec. 9. (a) If all or any part of said property is carried by water over any part of said route, and loss, damage or injury to said property occurs while the same is in the custody of a carrier by water the liability of such carrier shall be determined by the bill of lading of the carrier by water (this bill of lading being such bill of lading if the property is transported by such water carrier thereunder and by and under the laws and regulations applicable to transportation by water. Such water carriage shall be performed subject to all the terms and provisions of, and all the exemptions from liability contained in the Act of the Congress of the United States, approved on February 13, 1893, and entitled "An act relating to the navigation of vessels, etc.," and of other statutes of the United States according carriers by water the protection of limited liability, as well as the following subdivisions of this section; and to the conditions contained in this bill of lading not inconsistent with this section, when this bill of lading becomes the bill of lading of the carrier by water.

(b) No such carrier by water shall be liable for any loss or damage resulting from any fire happening to or on board the vessel, or from explosion, bursting of boilers or breakage of shafts, unless caused by the design or neglect of such carrier.

(c) If the owner shall have exercised due diligence in making the vessel in all respects seaworthy and properly manned, equipped, and supplied, no such carrier shall be liable for any loss or damage resulting from the perils of the lakes, seas, or other waters, or from latent defects in hull, machinery, or appurtenances whether existing prior to, at the time of, or after sailing, or from collision, stranding, or other accidents of navigation, or from prolongation of the voyage. And, when for any reason it is necessary, any vessel carrying any or all of the property herein described shall be at liberty to call at any port or ports, in or out of the customary route, to tow and be towed, to transfer, trans-ship, or lighter, to load and discharge goods at any time, to assist vessels in distress, to deviate for the purpose of saving life or property, and for docking and repairs. Except in case of negligence such carrier shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to property if it be necessary or is usual to carry the same upon deck.

(d) General Average shall be payable according to the York-Antwerp Rules of 1924, Sections 1 to 15, inclusive, and Sections 17 to 22, inclusive, and as to matters not covered thereby according to the laws and usages of the Port of New York. If the owners shall have exercised due diligence to make the vessel in all respects seaworthy and properly manned, equipped and supplied, it is hereby agreed that in case of danger, damage or disaster resulting from faults or errors in navigation, or in the management of the vessel, or from any latent or other defects in the vessel, her machinery or appurtenances, or from unseaworthiness, whether existing at the time of shipment or at the beginning of the voyage (provided the latent or other defects or the unseaworthiness was not discoverable by the exercise of due diligence), the shippers, consignees and/or owners of the cargo shall nevertheless pay salvage and any special charges incurred in respect of the cargo, and shall contribute with the shipowner in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred for the common benefit or to relieve the adventure from any common peril.

(e) If the property is being carried under a tariff which provides that any carrier or carriers party thereto shall be liable for loss from perils of the sea, then as to such carrier or carriers the provisions of this section shall be modified in accordance with the tariff provisions, which shall be regarded as incorporated into the conditions of this bill of lading.

(f) The term "water carriage" in this section shall not be construed as including lighterage in or across rivers, harbors, or lakes, when performed by or on behalf of rail carriers.

Sec. 10. Any alteration, addition, or erasure in this bill of lading which shall be made without the special notation hereon of the agent of the carrier issuing this bill of lading, shall be without effect, and this bill of lading shall be enforceable according to its original tenor.

Dear Librarian:

Enclosed is the list of the books sent from Heart Mountain, which we didn't use.

It is evidently not complete, so rather than take the risk of losing some more, we are where sending the books back.

I said that I sent it before, but evidently I think, so it is being sent now.

Thanks for the privilege of using those books, and we profited a great deal from the first loan of books, which we returned to Iliff School of Theology.

The books are being sent under separate cover.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

Lester E. Suzuki

P. S. Henceforth, it may be wiser to address all communications to the church secretary, who is at the library all the time, and who can take care of the books more efficiently. Formerly we didn't have the privilege of a secretary.

Also what is your instruction as to the new books

Dear Rev. Suzuki:

We received the books safely. I am sorry that you did not feel as though you wanted to be responsible for them. My plans for the next rotation of collections are complete. They include your receiving another collection. I trust that you will be inclined to make a fresh start with this new collection, and that you will be glad of the opportunity of using it.

About the first of June you will be sent a collection from Rohwer, Arkansas. I am enclosing a copy of the contents of this collection. You need do nothing in regard to securing this collection. I shall make all the necessary arrangements.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear friend:

I am writing to inquire whether or not you have two collections of religious books which have been loaned for the purpose by various theological seminaries and sent out under our auspices. I should like to know also whether you are using the collections, whether you would like to keep both, or one until your camp closes, or whether you would like one or both replaced by a different collection.

I should appreciate hearing from you promptly, since there is a camp in Wyoming without any books.

Dear friend:

You should have a collection of books belonging to Chicago theological seminary. Were these the ones you referred to in your letter of July 11, in which you wrote that you were returning two boxes of books to us? They have not arrived.

Will you kindly inform us again concerning the books you sent, and whether you mailed any to Chicago Theological Seminary.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Homma:

Regarding the books which you sent to us by freight on July 17th, I want you to know that they arrived some time after August 26th when I left on vacation, and were here when I returned. No doubt they were detained along the way by heavy traffic.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Dorothy Vetter, Lib'n.
